

CARONDELET LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

How Can You Help?

As you know, to build a great school we need the help and collaboration of parents! Not only do we build up Carondelet Leadership Academy when we help, but we also support our children and we bridge the gap between home and school more effectively. Please consider how you can be a part of building an incredible school for our children, and fill out the following form to indicate where you would most like to help. Thank you!
